THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. Papa is not only a strong Soviet air force center, but also houses a Hungarian infantry regiment [ ] which is stationed in the barracks constructed in 1948/49 in the southern outskirts of the town on the road leading to the Kastilian agricultural school. The barracks itself consist of several modern gray concrete buildings. 50X1-HUM
2. The strength of the regiment amounts to about 1600 men. The commanding officer, Col. Jozsef Simon, [ ] took over this regiment after returning from training in the USSR. The signal unit which is quartered in these barracks is not attached to the regiment but to the Division command stationed in Papa. 50X1-HUM
